III. GENERAL MEETINGS

16. Convening of a general meeting

- 16.1 The Board or any majority of Directors in office at the time may, whenever it or they think fit, call and arrange to hold a general meeting of the Company. The Board must call and arrange to hold an AGM in accordance with the requirements of the CorpAct as applicable to a public company that is not subject to the ACNCAAct.
- 16.2 Apart from as provided by rule 16.1, a general meeting of the Company may be ordered by the court or be called and arranged to be held by Members by following the process in section 249 of the CorpAct provided that the Board may accept a request from fewer Members than required under the CorpAct.

- 16.3 Without requesting a general meeting, Members may give the Company notice of a valid resolution that they propose to move at a general meeting in accordance with the CorpAct as applicable to a public company that is not subject to the ACNCAAct, except that the Board may accept such a notice that is given by fewer Members than would be required in accordance with the CorpAct.
- a) If the Company has been given notice of a valid resolution in accordance with rule 16.3, notice of the resolution is to be given to Members and the resolution is to be considered at a general meeting in accordance with this Constitution and the CorpAct, except that, subject to rule 17, the resolution may be considered at a general meeting that is scheduled to occur within 2 months of notice of the Members' resolution being received by the Company.
- 16.4 The Board may change the venue for, postpone or cancel a general meeting of the Company unless the meeting is called and arranged to be held by the Members or the court under rule 16.2. If a general meeting is called and arranged to be held under rule 16.2, the Board may make changes or cancel the meeting by following the relevant procedures in section 249 of the CorpAct.
- 16.5 A general meeting of the Company may be convened to occur at 2 or more venues using any technology that gives the Members in attendance a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting.
- 16.6 A general meeting convened in accordance with rule 16.5 is not invalidated due to a failure of the technology unless the failure arose out of conduct of an Officer which was not in good faith, or which involved wilful misconduct, gross negligence, reckless behaviour or fraud.

17. Notice of a general meeting

- 17.1 Subject to this Constitution, at least 21 days' notice (or such other minimum period as may be prescribed by the CorpAct from time to time for a public company limited by guarantee that is not subject to the ACNCAAct) of a general meeting must be given in the manner authorised by rule 49 to each person who is at the date of the notice:
- a) a Member;
- b) a Director; or
- c) an auditor of the Company.
- 17.2 A notice of a general meeting must specify:

- c) if a special resolution is to be proposed, the details of and intention to propose it; and
- d) if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more places then the technology that will be used to facilitate this.

- 17.3 Except as provided in rule 17.4, no business other than that specified in the notice convening a general meeting may be transacted at that general meeting.
- 17.4 It is not necessary for a notice of an AGM to state that the business to be transacted at the meeting includes the consideration of any annual financial report, Directors' report, any report from the auditor, the appointment of Directors, the appointment of the auditor when required or the fixing of the auditor's remuneration when required.
- 17.5 A Member may waive notice of a general meeting by notice in writing to the Company.
- 17.6 The accidental failure to give notice of any general meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any Person entitled to receive notice will not invalidate the proceedings at or any resolution passed at the meeting.
- 17.7 A Person's attendance at a general meeting waives any objection that that Person may have to a failure to give notice, or the giving of a defective notice, of the meeting unless the Person at the beginning of the meeting objects to the holding of the meeting.
- 17.8 Despite rule 17.1, a shorter notice period is allowed for a general meeting but only by following the requirements of section 249H of the CorpAct as applicable to a public company that is not subject to the ACNCAct.

18. Cancellation or postponement of a general meeting

- 18.1 The Board may cancel a general meeting of the Company that:
- a) has been convened by the Board; or
 - b) has been convened at the requisition of a Member or Members pursuant to rule 16.2 upon receipt by the Company of written notice withdrawing the requisition signed by that Member or those Members with the consequence that there are less than half the requisitioning Members remaining who still wish for the meeting to be convened.
- 18.2 Subject to rule 16.4, the Board may postpone a general meeting or change the venue at which it is to be held. No business shall be transacted at any postponed meeting other than the business stated in the notice to the Members relating to the original meeting.
- 18.3 Where any general meeting is cancelled or postponed or the venue for the meeting is changed:
- a) the Board must make a reasonable attempt to notify in writing each person entitled to receive notice of the meeting of the cancellation, the change of venue or the postponement of the meeting by any means permitted by this Constitution and in the case of the postponement of a meeting, the new place, date and time for the meeting; but

- b) any failure to notify in writing any person entitled to receive notice of the meeting or failure of a person to receive a written notice shall not affect the validity of the cancellation, the change of venue or the postponement of the meeting.

19. Quorum at a general meeting

- 19.1 No business may be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of Members entitled to vote is present at all times during the meeting.
- 19.2 A quorum shall be the number of Members present (see rule 4.2), that is equivalent to 2 times the number of Directors in office at the time of the meeting plus 1. For example, if there are 9 directors in office, the quorum is $(9 \times 2) + 1 = 19$.
- 19.3 If a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for a general meeting:
 - a) the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members in accordance with rule 16.2, shall be dissolved; and
 - b) in any other case:
 - i) the meeting stands adjourned to such day, and at such time and place, as the President determines or, if no determination is made by the President, to the same day in the next week at the same time and place; and
 - ii) if, at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved.

20. Chair of a general meeting

- 20.1 The President shall preside as chair at each general meeting unless:
 - a) there is no President;
 - b) the President is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting or, subject to rule 19.3, the time at which a quorum is present, whichever is later; or
 - c) the President is present within that time but is not willing to act as chair of the meeting.
- 20.2 When the President does not preside in accordance with rule 20.1 then:
 - a) the Directors present must elect as chair of the meeting another Director who is present and willing to act; and
 - b) if no other Director willing to act is present at the meeting, the Members who are present in person at the meeting may elect as chair of the meeting a Member who is present in person and willing to act provided the Member so elected is entitled to vote at the meeting.
- 20.3 Despite anything in rules 20.1 & 20.2, if the President and/or any other Director or Directors later attend a general meeting or later are willing to act in the role of chair, the relevant President or Director/s (elected if necessary as outlined in rule 20.2a) must take over as chair of the general meeting.

20.4 Subject to rule 21, the chair of a general meeting:

- a) shall ensure that all items on the agenda are dealt with, and in the sequence set out, unless the Members who are present in person and have a right to vote and the Representatives present who have a right to vote consent to the order being changed;
- b) shall conduct the meeting in a manner designed to facilitate decision making and the transaction of business; and
- c) shall superintend and control the proceedings in accordance with the requirements of the relevant law, this Constitution and the broad conventions of debate.

21. Conduct of a general meeting

21.1 A Member is entitled to attend, to speak and to vote (subject to rule 10.1c)), subject to this Constitution, at general meetings.

21.2 The chair of a general meeting may at any time they consider it necessary or desirable for the proper and orderly conduct of the meeting:

- a) impose a limit on the time that a person may speak on each motion or other item of business, question, motion or resolution being considered by the meeting and require the business, question, motion or resolution to be put to a vote of the Members present (see rule 4.2); and
- b) adopt any procedures for casting or recording votes at the meeting whether on a show of hands, on the voices or a poll, including the appointment of scrutineers.

21.3 Any question arising at a general meeting relating to the order of business, subject to rules 20.4a) & 21.6, procedure or conduct of the meeting must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision is final.

21.4 The chair of a general meeting may take any action they consider appropriate for the safety of persons attending the meeting and the orderly conduct of the meeting and may refuse admission to, or require to leave, and remain out of, the meeting any individual:

- a) who behaves or threatens to behave in a dangerous, offensive or disruptive way; or
- b) who is not entitled to receive notice of the general meeting if they are not the proxy, attorney or representative of a person entitled to receive notice of the general meeting.

21.5 The chair of the meeting may delegate powers conferred by rule 21.4 to any Person they think fit.

21.6 The chair of a general meeting may at any time during the course of a general meeting, and must if so directed by the meeting, adjourn from time to time and from place to place the meeting or any business, motion, question or resolution being considered or remaining to be considered by the meeting or any debate or discussion either to a later time at the same meeting or to an adjourned meeting as determined by the chair of the meeting.

- 21.7 No business may be transacted at any adjourned general meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- 21.8 A resolution passed at a general meeting resumed after an adjournment is passed on the day that it is passed.
- 21.9 Where a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as in the case of the original meeting.
- 21.10 Except as provided by rule 21.9, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting, subject to rule 18.3.
- 21.11 Where a meeting is adjourned, the Board may change the venue of, postpone or cancel the adjourned meeting unless the meeting was called and arranged to be held by the Members or the court in accordance with rule 16.2. If a meeting is called and arranged to be held in accordance with rule 16.2 then the Board may not postpone it beyond the date by which such a meeting would be required under the CorpAct as applicable to a public company that is not subject to the ACNCAct and may not cancel it without the consent of the requisitioning Members.

22. Decisions at a general meeting

- 22.1 Questions arising at a general meeting are to be decided by at least a majority of votes cast by the Members present (see rule 4.2) at the meeting who are eligible to vote and any such decision is for all purposes a decision of the Members, except in the case of any resolution which under this Constitution or as a matter of law requires a special majority.
- 22.2 At any time before a vote on a motion is taken at a general meeting, a summary of the proxy position and, if applicable, direct votes received in relation to the motion must be disclosed to the meeting.
- 22.3 In the case of an equality of votes upon any proposed resolution the chair of the meeting, in addition to any deliberative vote, does not have a casting vote and the proposed resolution is not passed.
- 22.4 A resolution put to the vote of a general meeting must be decided on a show of hands of the Members present in person or by Representative and eligible to vote (see rule 23.3) unless a poll is demanded before the vote is taken or before or immediately after the declaration of the result of the show of hands.
- 22.5 Where a general meeting is called in accordance with rule 16.5 Members and Representatives present in person via technology and who cannot be seen for a show of hands may cast their vote by voice or by electronic or other means approved by the chair of the meeting.

- 22.6 On a show of hands all Members present in person and Representatives, who are not Members in their own right, who are present in person and eligible to vote have 1 vote. - 22.7 Under rule 22.4 a poll may be demanded:
- a) by the chair of the meeting; or
 - b) by the lesser of at least 3 Members present (see rule 4.2) and having the right to vote on the resolution or Members with at least 5% of the votes that may be cast on the resolution on a poll.
- 22.8 A demand for a poll does not prevent the continuation of a general meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been demanded.
- 22.9 At any general meeting, unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been passed or lost, having regard to the majority required, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the general meeting of the Company which has been signed by the chair of the relevant general meeting or of the next succeeding general meeting, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- 22.10 If a poll is demanded at a general meeting, it will be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chair of the meeting directs, subject to rule 22.11, and the result of the poll will be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the general meeting of the Company which has been signed by the chair of the relevant general meeting or of the next succeeding general meeting, is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- a) Where a general meeting is called in accordance with rule 16.5 and a poll is demanded, Members present (see rule 4.2) via technology may cast their vote by informing the chair of the general meeting who must complete the poll for them in good faith on their instructions or by electronic or other means approved by the chair of the meeting.
- 22.11 A poll demanded at a general meeting on the election of a chair of the meeting pursuant to rule 20.2b) or on an adjournment pursuant to rule 21.6 must be taken immediately.
- 22.12 The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

23. Voting rights at a general meeting

- 23.1 Subject to this Constitution, at a general meeting every Member who is entitled to vote and who is present in person or by Representative has 1 vote on a show of hands.

- a) Where the Board has allowed Members to cast a direct vote by electronic or postal means on a matter the voting must be done in a way that identifies that a Member has voted but with the actual way in which the vote or votes have been cast secret. Subject to rules 23.3, 24.13 & 24.14, the Board must advise Members at the time of inviting a direct vote as to whether the result of the vote shall be the decision of the Members or whether the matter that has been voted on by direct vote shall also be voted on at a general meeting and the decision shall be the combined result of the direct vote and the voting at the general meeting where a poll must be called on the matter.
- 23.2 An Appointed Director who is not a Member has a right to attend and to speak at a general meeting but has no right to a vote at a general meeting in their capacity of an Appointed Director.
- 23.3 At a general meeting a proxy is not entitled to a vote on a show of hands but is entitled to a vote if a poll is called.
- 23.4 A proxy is entitled to vote separately for each Member the person represents, in addition to any vote(s) they may have as a Member or Representative in their own right.
- 23.5 An objection to the qualification of a person to vote at a general meeting:
 - a) must be raised before or at the meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered; and
 - b) must be referred to the chair of the meeting whose decision on the qualification to vote is final.
- 23.6 A vote not disallowed by the chair of the meeting under rule 23.5b) is valid for all purposes.

24. Representation at a general meeting

- 24.1 Subject to this Constitution, each Member entitled to vote at a general meeting may vote:
 - a) in person or via a Representative and including:
 - i) by attorney where proof of the power of attorney is provided to the Secretary at least 48 hours prior to the meeting;
 - b) by direct vote using electronic and/or postal means where such an option is offered by the Board; or
 - c) by proxy.
- 24.2 The general rights and procedures related to a proxy that apply in accordance with the CorpAct as applicable to a public company that is not subject to the ACNCAAct apply to a proxy appointed under this Constitution.
- 24.3 A proxy may, but need not, be a Member or a Member who is entitled to vote.
- 24.4 A proxy may be appointed for all general meetings, or any number of general meetings, or for a particular general meeting.

- 24.5 Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, subject to rule 22.4, the instrument appointing a proxy will be taken:
- a) to confer authority to agree to a meeting being convened by shorter notice than is required by the CorpAct as applicable to a public company that is not subject to the ACNCAct or by this Constitution;
 - b) to confer authority to speak to any proposed resolution on which the proxy may vote;
 - c) to confer authority to demand, or join in demanding, a poll on any resolution on which the proxy may vote in a poll;
 - d) to appoint the chair of the general meeting as the proxy unless the Member clearly specifies another person as proxy and that person attends the general meeting;
 - e) even though the instrument may refer to specific resolutions and may direct the proxy how to vote on those resolutions:
 - i) to vote, in a way that is consistent with any direction given by the Member on the proxy form, on any amendment moved to any of the proposed resolutions and on any motion that any of the proposed resolutions not be put or any similar motion;
 - ii) to vote on a poll on any procedural motion, including any motion to elect the chair, to vacate (in the case of a Member chair elected under rule 20.2b) the chair or to adjourn the meeting (including by motion that the chair leave the chair); and

 - f) even though the instrument may refer to a specific meeting, to be held at a specific time or venue, where the meeting is rescheduled or adjourned to another time or changed to another venue, to attend and vote at the rescheduled or adjourned meeting or at the new venue.
- 24.6 An instrument appointing a proxy may direct the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where an instrument so provides, the proxy is not entitled to vote on the proposed resolution except as directed in the instrument.
- a) Where the instrument so directs the proxy how to vote and the person appointed as proxy is not the chair of the meeting and the proxy does not exercise the vote when a poll is called then the chair of the meeting is taken, before voting on the resolution closes, to have been appointed as the proxy for the purposes of voting on the resolution at the meeting.
- 24.7 Subject to rule 24.10, an instrument appointing a proxy need not be in any particular form provided it is in writing, contains the Member's name and address, the Company's name, the proxy's name or the office held by the proxy, the meetings at which the appointment may be used and either:
- a) be signed by the appointer or the appointer's attorney; or

- b) be authenticated in such manner as the Board may determine.
- 24.8 A proxy may not vote at a general meeting or adjourned meeting or on a poll unless the instrument appointing the proxy, and the authority under which the instrument is signed or a certified copy of the authority, are received in or at a place, fax number or electronic address specified in the notice of meeting at least:
- a) 48 hours (or such other minimum period as may be prescribed by the CorpAct as applicable to a public company limited by guarantee that is not subject to the ACNCAct from time to time); or
 - b) such lesser period specified for this purpose in the notice calling the meeting.
- 24.9 For the purposes of rule 24.8:
- a) the place may be the Company's registered office or other place specified in the notice and a fax number or electronic address may be the fax number or electronic address at the Company's registered office or the fax number or electronic address specified in the notice; and
 - b) the lesser period may be any time set by the Board before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting.
- 24.10 The Directors may waive all or any of the requirements of rules 24.7 & 24.8 and in particular may, upon the production of such other evidence as the Directors require to prove the validity of the appointment of a proxy, accept:
- a) an oral appointment of a proxy;
 - b) an appointment of a proxy which is not signed and executed in the manner required by rule 24.725g); and
 - c) the deposit, tabling or production of a copy, including a copy sent by facsimile or by electronic transfer, of an instrument appointing a proxy or of the power of attorney or other authority under which the instrument is signed.
- 24.11 A later appointment of a proxy or attorney revokes an earlier one if both appointments could be validly exercised at the meeting.
- 24.12 A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument appointing a proxy is valid despite the revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed, if no notice in writing of the revocation has been received by the Company by the time and at 1 of the places at which the instrument appointing the proxy is required to be received under rules 24.8 & 24.10.
- 24.13 The appointment of a proxy is not revoked by the appointer attending and taking part in the general meeting but, if the appointer votes on any resolution, the proxy is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the appointer's proxy on the resolution.
- 24.14 If a Member has cast a direct vote on a matter and the Board puts that matter to a general meeting for a vote, then if a Member who has already cast a direct vote or their Representative or their attorney or their proxy is at the general meeting they are not entitled to vote and must not vote on the matter at the general meeting. Their direct vote will be counted if a poll is taken on the matter.

- 24.15 The chair of a general meeting may require any person acting as a proxy to establish to the satisfaction of the chair of the meeting that the person is the person nominated as proxy in the form of proxy lodged under this Constitution. If the person is unable to establish their identity, they may be excluded from voting in which case rule 24.6a) applies unless the form of proxy indicates otherwise.

Where the Board so resolves, any such particular Elected Director shall be permitted, if they so wish and if they are nominated, to stand for election for a 3rd consecutive term. The Board must inform Members of this action as part of the election process.
